London Life. PUNCH AND

Dearest Sis,

It just occurred to me, that as B. is coming to 138 with me for next week you might be glad to have Father with Stay at Mrs Mitchells & of course when fine he will be on Stans garden. I thought you might be coming up & have a fruitless journey. So sorry to say Nance has been without news a fortnight. She is very distressed & I feel ever so worried. I pray the dear boy is safe & the delay is caused through letters being held back. Shall you come over some time next week. I should like to see you; Stan is well No news of Hal

Love in haste Emmie
